Tomorrow 1319 Women's Coats and Wraps Enter This Sale At Final Clearance Prices

These New Prices Are Only Fractions of Former Conservative Gimbel Prices for the Finest Imported and Domestic Coats

If we were asked to make a representative showing of Gimbel merchandise, we could not make a better display than to simply present the Coats that will go into this Sale tomorrow. Probably it does not seem like good logic to make such a statement, and at the same time announce that the prices of these Coats will be lessened to mere fractions.

But here's the reason in a nutshell our fiscal year is nearing an end, so is the present season. And it is our rule that each season's merchandise should be absolutely disposed of before the beginning of another season. This is our final Clearance Sale of

This sale may be enjoyed by women of all statures, and of all tastes—those that are only keen for severely tailored styles, those that are eager for Fashion's fancies, and those that love the luxurious. Variety is here and in every size, although sizes are broken, and of some models there may be only one or two coats.

Women who share in this Sale will have the satisfaction of knowing that every coat and wrap is from our own regular high-quality stock - as no merchandise was bought in for the Sale.

The Coats for general utility wear, traveling and motoring were made to our especial order by the best tailors in America and Europe. Nearly all the Coats made in America are reproductions and adaptations of imported models. Besides, there are superb afternoon and evening Wraps, including beautiful models from the ateliers of Paul Poiret, Francis, Beer and other Parisian style-creators—also American copies. As an index to this Sale we shall quote the prices in the most important groups:
